

Ms Shiyu LU

Research Fellow, Tencent Research Institute

Shiyu Lu, a researcher across humanities and technology, a senior researcher of Tencent Research Institute, and an industrial master's tutor of the School of Journalism and Communication, Jinan University. Shiyu is particularly interested in technology for the elderly and technology for rural revitalization. She has authored several books and reports including "Social Network Fasting-What We Learn From A 15-Day Experiment With 85 People" and "Digital Family-The Wechat Life of the Elderly". She also founded the S-Tech Workshop and the AI & Society Alliance, and carried out academic supporting programs in internet anthropology, psychology, and communication. She is committed to bringing the "human perspective" into the context of the development of technology.

Topic: How can digital application and Innovation help the community adapt to aging?

陸詩兩女士

騰訊研究院高級研究員

陸詩兩，人文科技研究者，騰訊研究院高級研究員，暨南大學新聞與傳播學專業碩士業界導師，從事科技適老與助老、科技助力鄉村振興等方向研究，撰寫《吾老之域：老年人微信生活與家庭微信反哺》

《社交的尺度——社交網路齋戒實驗》等書籍和報告，創辦S-Tech工作室、AI & Society聯盟，開展互聯網人類學、心理學、傳播學等學術支持計畫，長期致力於將“人的視角”引入科技發展的語境中，探索科技向善的行動路徑。

題目：數字科技如何助力社區適老化改造與創新？