Venue: PolyU (Hong Kong); PolyU Shenzhen Research Institute (Shenzhen)

深圳香港兩地分別設立實體工作坊會場，事前在兩地招募跨年齡和跨界別的共創成員，組成約 70 名參與者的共創隊伍。兩地共創隊伍就長者因數字鴻溝造成的日常生活障礙，包括網上購物、智慧出行和娛樂社交等三方面，進行協作共創。兩地共創隊伍透過實時連線，分享共創成果。本次工作坊有助加強兩地共創者對設計思維的認知，更促進了香港和內地的社會創新交流。

Two co-creation teams were formed by 70 participants from different age groups and professions to join the physical workshops held in Hong Kong and Shenzhen respectively. The two teams cooperated with each other to work on the daily obstacles the older adults encounter under the digital divide. These obstacles are mainly related to online shopping, smart mobility and social life. The two teams had a real-time online meeting during the workshop and shared their co-creation ideas. The workshop helped the participants to enhance the understanding about the design thinking and strengthen the interactions of social innovations between Hong Kong and Shenzhen.
